Acknowledgement of the Online Class Policy

I understand that if it should it become necessary to close the studio due to a state-wide health concern (such as Covid-19), classes will switch to online classes, such as Zoom. I understand that annual tuition includes in studio and online classes, should they become necessary. I further understand that a Registration Change Form is required to drop online classes and that it may be submitted electronically if the studio is not open. I understand the 30 day drop policy will be waived for the first 14 days from the first online class and after the 14-day grace period, all registration change forms will include the 30-day drop policy. Agreement to Follow the Code of Conduct

Students of The Charlotte School of Ballet are expected to show exemplary behavior by:

- Being respectful of all students and teachers. Physical or verbal abuse, including "name calling" or "bullying," is not tolerated.
- Avoiding excessive talking during class, playing around, or not participating in the class. Disrupting the class is distracting and makes it difficult for our teachers and students to continue the class.
- Showing respect for the studio property and the property of other students.
- Making sure all classmates feel included. We ask that if a student wishes to hand out party invitations or holiday gifts/ cards, please be sure to include every dancer in the class. If you need to limit the invitations, gifts or cards to just a select few, the studio requests that you give them outside of the studio.

If a student does not abide by these rules, the teachers reserve the right to dismiss the student from the class until they can use appropriate behavior. The studio will not refund tuition for classes missed due to inappropriate behavior.

I understand the Charlotte School of Ballet Code of Conduct and have gone over these rules with my dancer.
